To the Worshipfull James Hubbard Esq^r^.
Deputy Gov^r^. of Fort S^t^. David.

The Humble Petition of the Company's Merchants, Sadashavarow, Wollagapa Chitty, Narrain Chitty, Irshapa Chitty, Vencapa Chitty, & Daveroy Chitty.

Sheweth,

That Whereas when your Petitioners undertook to contract with the Honble Company they then we[re] in Hopes to compleat their Contracts, more chearfully than the former Season, And for all the care and Industry w^ch^. they had taken to their own Benefit and the Companys Interest, which your Worship is very well Assured of it, Yet they have sustain'd a Considerable loss thereby which is herew^th^. presented for your Worships Perusall Viz^t^.

The Bales which the Company have taken in of the several Numbers your Worship is very well inform'd of it, And there has been several Peices of the Salem Long Cloth put to ordinary, and some turn'd out and torn, so that your Petitioners have been great Sufferers thereby.

As for the Conjee Rice We have paid ¼ Pagoda ℔ Corge more than the Company Pays.

We have paid the Washers and Beaters Considerable more than the Company Allow, besides there has been several quantities of Cloth taken by them to the value of Sixty Pagodas.

On the Blue Cloth We have paid the Dyers three Pagodas ℔ Corge more than the Company allow, so that We have been Likewise great sufferers thereby.

Your Petitioners have also spent a Vast deal of money upon Servants for the Companys Service.

It is most Evident that your Petitioners have been great Sufferers in their Late Contract Pag^s^. 2420. All which they entirely leave to your Consideration, desiring no other Decission thereof, than what shall appear most equitable & just, who as in Duty Bound.

Will ever Pray.

Fort S^t^. David,
16^th^. Febry. 1735/6.

To the Worshipfull James Hubbard Esq^r^.
Deputy Governour of Fort S^t^. David.

The Humble Petition of Sadashavarow.

Sheweth,

That Whereas your Petitioner held the Bound Rent of the Honble Company for three years, including also the Windmill Rent at Pag^s^. 160 ℔ Annum, upon terms that your Petitioner should be supply'd with as much Water, as will be sufficient to Water all the Paddy feilds, since that your Petitioner had no manner of use with that by reason y^t^. the Water does not flow to their Paddy feilds, and all their corn is wither'd for want of Water, and your Petition^r^. has not the Benefit of Pag^s^. 10 ℔ Anñ by it, he was oblig'd to Borrow Pag^s^. 160 Last year for to Pay the Company, and the Compy. have also been at the Charge of a great deal of money, for keeping it in Repair, more than that farm will come to and your Petitioner is not able to Pay that Rent for the Remaining two years, because of the Loss sustain'd thereby, besides this there has been Several Ballances remaining upon the Bound Inhabitants, And your Petitioner could not collect it because of the famine.

— FEBRUARY 1735–36 —

In this unlucky Circumstance of Credit your Petitioner refers it to your Worships most serious Considerat[n]. so far as to Quit him that farm, because Your Petitioner has been a great Sufferer thereby, Who as in Duty Bound.

Shall ever Pray.

According to the Deputy Governours order I have examin'd the Windmill, and to the best of my Judgement, find what the Manager of that Machine requires to put it into the order it Ought to be, is necessary, but I believe will exceed the Charges he hath Calculated it at, besides mens Labour of drawing Water is so cheap here, and their way so expeditious, that a Mill never so well made, will not perferm [sic] the Work so cheap, for I have seen Six Men with three Baskets, fling out the Water faster, than the Mill could supply a Receiver, made for a Tryal of its Performance.

PHILLIP BAKER.

First. There requires a Bank to be rais'd round the Mill about six foot high, that the Sails may be handled without a Ladder, Secondly. The four Vains are made too flat and thereby receiving the Wind too full, doth not discharge it Quick enough out again, which prevents them moving swiftly round, Whereas if the Vains were slooped a Little more, the Wind would play quicker out & in, and drive them faster round.

Thirdly. The Main Axle tree will be too short, by reason two Weels [sic] and the Water Roll &c. must be mov'd Lower down, for the Water is Convey'd ten foot above the ground, which is not only needless, but Loads the Water Roll, with more Weight than is Convenient, and makes it move more slowly round, But Note the old axle tree will serve for a Beam of which there are only five, whereas there ought to be Six.

Fourthly. The Least of the Weels [sic] require a new Axletree, the Old one being much shorter than the Diameter of the said Weel, [sic] which makes it jump out of its place, and always unsteady.

Fifthly. The Main Axletree Neck on which the Vains are fastned, is made so thin that a great Blast of Wind would endanger its Breaking, But if the stool which supports it, was shifted nearer the Vains, the Neck would be thereby shorter and so much the more stronger.

Sixthly The Cistern or Receiver of the Water, standing within the Water Roll, could not be made bigger than the Circumference of the said Water Roll would admit of, whereby being too small, it always Looses much Water, for when the Mill goes fast round, the Buckets are swiftly conveyed over the Cistern, before they can Discharge the Water into it, or if the Mill goes slow, they begin to Empty themselves, before they arrive at the Receiver, But if the said Cistern be remov'd under the Water Roll, it may be made big enough, to receive all the spray of the Water without Spilling, to do which there must be made a new Axletree to the Water Roll.

By these Alterations 'tis believed the Mill may be kept in due order, and always Discharge double the Quantity of Water it did at first, The Expence of which is Computed to cost about two hundred Pagodas, Little more or Less.

HENRY FEILDING
Windmill Master.

We told them the merchants at Madrass Contracted upon the same terms as last year, though the Charges of Carriage and Juncan is much more to them, to which they reply'd they were sure the Merchants there must Loose by the Salem Cloth they provide, that they do it for Honour and may Possibly make up that loss by the Broad Cloth or other Goods by being in a trading place, but as for themselves they are poor, and have no ways to fetch up any Considerable loss, they may sustain on the Investment, They say they are very willing to serve the Company, without hopes of Proffit, but their circumstances will not allow them to do any thing at their own Loss, We therefore agree'd to send the above list to the Honble President & Council, but that We do not give them the least hopes of their being allow'd those prices. They reply, that they have likewise Brown Cloth in their Godowns worth P. 1300, 500 Pagodas they Lost by sending money into the Country to provide Cloth for the Company the Peons being kill'd, which We have heard of & believe to be true, They Produce a Weaver that owes them 600 Pagodas, the money being advanc'd him to bring in Cloth which he has not done, Advd. the Merch^ts. proposals. is so much more to them—after some Discourse on this head they Consented to the prices of last year provided they may be allow'd a Proportion of Blue Cloth equal to the other sorts, The Particulars that both sets offer to Contract for is as follows.

Long Cloth Salem	600
Salampores	100
Long Cloth Ord^ry.	100
Long Cloth Blue	200
Bales ...	1000

They say they are sure to loose by the Salem Cloth they provide, but have some Hopes to make up that loss by the Blue Cloth as Dying is much Cheaper than last year, We told them our orders were not to exceed sixty six bales and that it would be to no Purpose to mention 200 Bales which We were sure would not be granted them, upon which they reply'd that if they were not allow'd that quantity of Blue Cloth, they could not undertake to Contract but upon the prices propos'd by them before.

Notes produc'd by them under Mr. Berrimans hand for money paid by them on the Charity Stock Accot. are told that they cold not pay any part of the Principl. to Mr. Berriman & the money so paid by them must be on their own Accot.

to which he had enquir'd of the said Merchants and what were their last Payments of Interest, and that demanding of them the remaining due as Usual, Tondaroy & Merchants produc'd a Note under Mr. Berrimans hands for Pags. 200, And Tomby Chittys Gomasta for Pags. 100, Paid by them to him, besides some other Notes of Account with the Deceas'd, which they pretend was so paid on Account of the Charity Stock in their hands at Interest, though on reading the Bonds it was Observ'd to them, that they were drawn as for so much money lent Mr. Berriman on their private Accounts, And nothing at all of the Charity Stock Mention'd in them, And further that by the tenour of their Bonds for those sums, that they could not pay any part of the principal, nor any thing more than the Monthly Interest to Mr. Berriman; otherwise than at their own Risque, for that the Bonds were drawn in the name of the Governour and Council and made payable to them; all but the monthly Interest, for the Curr^{t}. Expence & maintenance of the Schoole. To this they said they did not understand the English Characters of the Bond but sign'd it upon trust as they had done several Bonds before, And so thought that they were accountable for the whole Loans to Mr. Berriman, and him only, And they therefore hope We will not insist on what they are now told is in strictness the Tenour of their Bonds.

they are order'd to pay to Mr. Eyre the Interest on the full sums of their Bonds & that if the Court should give it in their favour it be return'd them again.

They are Answer'd that We cannot in Justice to the Stewardship of a Charity Trust, of ourselves, excuse them any thing of the Tenour of their Bonds, but if they think they have any reason to hope for any such Indulgence, it must be the Mayors Court of Madrass only that can give it them. But however that may be, they are in the mean time, and now Order'd to pay to Thomas Eyre the Interest due to this time on the full sums of their Bonds, And that if the Court should allow any of the sums pretended to be paid Mr. Berriman in part of that Account, they shall be duely discounted from the Interest on the Whole Amount of the Bonds, so as above now order'd to be paid.

Chellumbrum Chitty no such Person to be found

Thomas Eyre also Represents, that for the Article of Chellumbrum Coopia's Debt, he has enquird very well & can find no such Person to have been here, & has also wrote to the Administrator who had the Perusal of the Deceas'd Papers, and received Answer that he can find no such Bond or Account of his among them.
